

END USER LICENSE AGREEMENT – EXTENDED LICENCE

You purchased the extended font licence, which means that you can use this font for personal and commercial projects under the following terms:

1.

One license covers only one user of the font. Anybody who uses the actual font file (installs it on the computer) is required to purchase the license. Any person who uses only the products made using the font, but not the actual font file, doesn't have to purchase the license.

Example: If a designer purchased the license and delivers to a client only the files which the client can open, view and use without installing the font (i.e. JPG or vector drawing where the text typed using the font is turned into outlines) then the client doesn't have to purchase the license. The only exception: If a client purchased the font, he or she can send the font file to a designer, who can install it on his computer and use for the project without purchasing the licence, but the designer can use the font only for that particular project and has to uninstall the font after the project is done.

The user who purchased the license can use it for an unlimited number of projects (inside the boundaries of point 1 of this license agreement).

3.

Except for your right to use this font, all other rights are owned and retained by Erica Hartwick.

4.

Under no circumstances this font may be sold to third parties.

5.

This font may not be redistributed, shared, repackaged or included in any online or offline archive, font collection, web site or CD-ROM without written permission from Erica Hartwick.

6.

This licence allows embedding the font into web pages, apps, or digital documents, but only in a secured, read-only mode. The one purchased license allows the usage of the font at a single site or a single app or a single ebook. The number of views/downloads of website/app/ebook covered by this license is unlimited.
